

I am an avid listener of XM satellite radio. As a consumer I appreciate the choices offered by satellite radio. The only reason that I can see to ban satellite radio providers from delivering local coverage is to protect the existing radio industry from competition.